JOINT RESOLUTIONS

Expressing opinion of Congress in relation to the conduct of certain citizens of Louisiana within the lines, and in the presence of the enemy.

1     Resolved, That while Congress views, with pride, the course
2     pursued by the true men and women of the Confederacy, who,
3     falling within the lines of the enemy, have resisted all appeals 4     to their pecuniary interest and refused, in spite of pains and 5     penalties, to perjure themselves or to foreswear their own gov-6     ernment by taking an oath of allegiance to support that of the 7     United States, it regards with peculiar satisfaction the conduct 8     of those citizens of Louisiana, who, by refusing the oath and 9     openly registering themselves enemies to the United States in 10    the immediate presence and in defiance of General Butler's mil-

11 itary authorities, have borne most noble testimony to the 12 martyr-like courage and patriotic spirit and Christian faith of 13 our people.

1     Resolved, That while such conduct has secured them the pre-
2 sent respect and sympathy of all good people, it will be esteemed, 3 in the future, a most honorable claim upon the gratitude of their 4 country, and the highest evidence of their devotion to truth and 5 principle.
